Let's Facilitate

At Lombard & Associates, we are committed towards supporting parents in not only facilitating discussions with their children, but also empowering them during this sacred and challenging journey.

Our Let's Facilitate topics are designed to aid in the discovery and personal insight of children and the critical role that a parent can play in developing a space for a child to explore alternative realities.

Join us and LET'S FACILITATE!

All Let's Facilitate topics are provided by a registered Psychologist in the form of a Coaching Session and accompanied by applicable handouts. The following symbols indicate the recommended audience:
